One portion of your address, as shown on the back cover of this issue, represents an attempt by the Alumni Office to identify you with the proper college class at Lenoir Rhyne. The coding, located beneath or to the right of the address, appears as two digits — “49”, for example, represents “Class of 1949”.

Contrary to popular opinion, your classification was not selected at random. It represents man-hours of work over a 15-month period applying a formula which in general will group each alumnus with other alumni he knows.

Stated simply, the formula is this: the four-year graduate is classified by the year in which he received his degree; the alumnus who did not receive a degree is classified by adding four years to the year in which he entered Lenoir Rhyne.

We realize the general rule will not always make sense in a specific application. Some alumni received their degrees before or after their classmates graduated but would prefer to be grouped with their classmates. Some non-graduate alumni may not know any of the people who graduated four years after their date of entrance to Lenoir Rhyne and would wish to be grouped with another class.

So the formula is not a rule to be followed blindly. It is your privilege to identify yourself with the class in which you know the most members. Take a moment now to look at the classification shown with your address. If it is incorrect, or if you prefer that we change it (or if it is missing altogether), please let us know. Just tear off the address portion of the page, note the correction and mail it to the Alumni Office.

(If this issue is addressed to you and your wife/husband, the first set of digits apply to the husband, the second set to the wife.)

The classification shown on your address plate serves several purposes. It indicates, for example, to which class your Loyalty Fund gift is credited, with which class you will be listed in the Honor Roll of Donors, and to which class reunion you will be invited in future years. We want it to reflect your desires and ask you to help us.

While on the subject, we wish to say again that we are happy to change any part of your address plate that is incorrect. Are we addressing you by a first name you seldom use? Is your name misspelled? Is the house number wrong? If so, let us hear from you. You will help us and your postman to serve you better.

New Officers and Directors Named

Lenoir Rhyne college alumni elected a new first vice-president and six directors during the annual mail ballot in April and May.

Don Safrit '51 of Raleigh was named to the post of first vice-president in a close election over William E. Ingle '56 of Charlotte. He succeeds J. W. McGee, Jr., '41 of Concord.

Elected new directors of the Alumni Association were H. Ned Armstrong '41 and James C. Barker '42 of Hickory, Donald H. Carpenter '58 of Charlotte, William H. McCullough '56 of Raleigh, the Rev. Paul L. Morgan '44 of Greensboro, and Clarence Stasavich '35 of Greenville.

Also elected during the balloting were the three officers seeking re-election: Klynt Ripple '40 of Lexington, president; Marcus C. Smith '52 of Lenoir, second vice-president; and Miss Betty Scott Lentz '44 of Salisbury.

A total of 1,551 alumni cast ballots in the election which closed May 15.

Results of the balloting were announced at the board of directors meeting on June 1 by Dr. D. Miles Aderholdt '25 of Henry River, chairman of the nominating committee. Other alumni serving on the nominating committee were Miss Mary Deaton '25 of Lincolnton, Luther Boliek '26 of Hickory, Lloyd Little '33 of Shelby, Mrs. Mary Frances Bagby Mauney '35 of Cherryville and Mr. Ingle.

The new officers and directors assumed office on July 1.

Dr. Aderholdt is one of the six directors retiring from the board this year following a two-year term. The others are Dr. William Fritz '31 and Dr. B. W. Goodman '50 of Hickory, the Rev. Harry Hawthorne '41 of High Point, Dr. George F. Schott '37 of Columbia, S. C., and the Rev. Sam L. Sox '26 of Greensboro.

An additional six directors, elected last year, will continue to hold membership during the 1963-64 year. They are Marshall C. Abee '51 of Winston-Salem, Lewis B. Carpenter '23 and Harry E. Faggart, Jr., '50 of Charlotte, Frank Little '51 of Maiden, Mrs. Alice Moretz Lee '37 of Hickory, and David C. Wright, Jr., '56 of Greensboro.

New Dean Begins Duties

Robert L. Duncan, former high school guidance counselor in Miami, Fla., assumed duties this month as new dean of students at Lenoir Rhyne college. He succeeds Dr. Frank H. Bretz who resigned the post in July 1962.

Mr. Duncan is a graduate of DePauw university where he received a degree in economics in 1935. He also holds a master's degree in education from Butler university and has completed one year of study at Ohio State University toward a doctor's degree in college personnel and guidance.

He is married and the father of two sons.

REUNION SCHEDULE REVISED

Major revisions in the class reunion schedule and the Loyalty Fund program were adopted by the Lenoir Rhyne Alumni Association board of directors during their regular meeting on the college campus June 1.

Alumni classes will meet in the future on a schedule that coincides with the reunions of their contemporary classes. The change becomes effective on Alumni Day, 1964, but will not become fully operational until the following year.

In the past, alumni classes have met in each five-year anniversary year.

The new schedule, known as the Dix Reunion Plan, was adopted because it enables each alumnus to return to the campus at a time when he may see members of other classes of his student generation. Under the former arrangement, classes holding simultaneous reunions always represented different student generations.

The plan is modified to make special provision for reunions in the first, twenty-fifth and fiftieth years following graduation.

In general, classes will continue to hold reunions at five-year intervals, but once in each 19-year cycle the interval is reduced to four years. The reunions may occur in five-year-anniversary years, but usually they will not.

To effect the change from old schedule to new, an abnormally large number of classes (25) will hold reunions in 1964. Thereafter, the number will level off to an average of 16 classes each year. Under the old plan, twelve classes held reunions each year.

Two major changes in the annual Loyalty Fund program were adopted by the directors. The new fund year, which began July 1 and will continue through next June 30, will feature an active solicitation starting in October. Previous funds have usually started later in the fiscal year, around Jan. 1.

The current fund will also be organized by alumni classes, as compared to the community-organized fund in 1961-62 and the direct-mail fund the year before.

Both changes were recommended to the board of directors by the Alumni Cabinet for the 1963 Campaign, which served during the past year in place of the traditional Loyalty Fund committee. (The Loyalty Fund was not conducted during the past year because it would have conflicted with the Fund for Progress campaign.)

Goal for the 1963-64 Loyalty Fund will be $35,000. The fund leaders will also seek gifts from at least 1,600 donors. The 1961-62 fund resulted in 1,000 donors giving $20,000. In 1960-61, 400 donors gave $12,000.

At the same meeting, the alumni directors elected Mrs. Alice Moretz Lee '37 of Hickory to represent the Alumni Association on the Board of Governors of the Voigt R. Cromer College Center for the 1963-64 year. The Board of Governors, composed of student, faculty, administration and alumni representatives, is the policy-making organization for the operation of the new campus building.

The directors also authorized the publication and distribution of a guidance pamphlet for use by alumni chapters. The pamphlet outlines procedures for organizing a chapter and planning a chapter meeting and includes a suggested constitution for chapter adoption. Copies are available from the Alumni Office on request.

In another action, the directors authorized the awarding of a $200 scholarship to a worthy Lenoir Rhyne student during the 1963-64 year. Miss Betty Pugh, a sophomore from Asheboro, received the Alumni Association scholarship during the past year.

Klynt Ripple, president of the Alumni Association, presided over the director's meeting, held in the Voigt R. Cromer College Center. Miss Betty Scott Lentz, secretary-treasurer, reported a balance in the association treasury of $2,081.89.

Hosts Church Meetings

Lenoir Rhyne college is playing host this summer to five different church groups meeting on its campus.

Three groups will hold their annual conventions at the college. The Luther League of North Carolina will convene from July 17 to July 20; the Luther League of the Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church will meet from July 30 to Aug. 2; and the North Carolina Lutheran Church Women of the Lutheran Church in America will be on campus from Aug. 23 to Aug. 25.

In addition, the LCA Board of American Missions held one of its four schools for mission pastors at Lenoir Rhyne during the week of June 10, and the North Carolina Lutheran synod has planned a stewardship-evangelism-social ministry school on July 26-27.

Two Named Distinguished Alumni

A retired missionary to Japan and a Kings Mountain industrialist were awarded Distinguished Alumni awards by the Alumni Association of Lenoir Rhyne college during the association's annual dinner at the college on June 1.

The awards were presented to Miss Maud Powlas of Barber, who graduated from Lenoir Rhyne in 1914, and Dr. W. K. Mauney of Kings Mountain, a graduate in 1910.

Miss Powlas, a Lutheran missionary-social worker in Japan from 1918 to 1959, was recognized for "distinguished service to the Japanese people".

In making the presentation, Klynt Ripple of Lexington, president of the Lenoir Rhyne alumni, stated that Miss Powlas' "concern for the underprivileged resulted in her establishing in Kumamoto the Colony of Mercy, an institution known widely as a haven for children, rescue girls and the elderly. For 23 years she served as superintendent of the colony until in 1941 she was forced to leave the country under threat of imprisonment.

"Following World War II, Miss Powlas returned to Japan and established another institution to minister to children victimized by the war. Later she moved to still another area to minister to one hundred families nearing starvation.

"Upon her retirement in 1959, Miss Powlas was awarded a special citation by the Emperor of Japan in appreciation for her unusual service to the Japanese nation. During the past year, her work has been dramatized by the National Broadcasting Association in Japan and a children's version of her biography has been published in the Japanese language."

Dr. Mauney, described by President Ripple as a "ready and generous benefactor of Lenoir Rhyne" was recognized for his "unusual devotion of time, energies and financial gifts to his Alma Mater".

Dr. Mauney is a member of the board of trustees of the college and has served continuously for 39 years, longer than any other trustee in the history of the 72-year-old institution. He and his family also gave to the college the Mauney Music building, erected in 1960 at a cost of $350,000.

The Distinguished Alumni award is presented annually by the association "in honor of outstanding service and in recognition of living reflection of the principles of education and Christian character upon which Lenoir Rhyne is established."

President Ripple also presented two

Distinguished Service awards for the association in recognition of unusual service to Lenoir Rhyne during the past year.

One was presented to Dr. B. W. Goodman, Hickory physician and Lenoir Rhyne alumnus, in recognition of his volunteer and free medical service to Lenoir Rhyne student athletes.

The second was awarded to the worker organization which raised $1,500,000 in gifts and pledges early this year during the Lenoir Rhyne Fund for Progress campaign. The award was received by the general chairman of the worker organization, Glenn E. Ketner of Salisbury.

The annual alumni dinner was held in the new Voigt R. Cromer College center on the Lenoir Rhyne campus. Speaker for the event was the Rev. John M. Mangum of Philadelphia, staff secretary of the Board of World Missions of the Lutheran Church in America.

TWO MEMBERS of the Lenoir Rhyne Class of '03 were among the graduates and former students who returned to the college campus June 1 for the annual Alumni Day program. Observing the 60th anniversary of their graduations from Lenoir Rhyne were Marcus L. Mauney of Charlotte and Mrs. Jessie Moser Johnson of Clinton. The only other surviving member of the class, Lawrence E. Rudisill of Hot Springs, was unable to be present. Another senior alumna, Mrs. Essie Robinson Beverly of the Class of '13, was recognized at the dinner for traveling the farthest to attend the event. She lives in San Antonio, Tex.

HONOR ROLL SETS RECORD

A record total of 1,720 alumni were named this month to the 1963 Loyalty Fund Honor Roll of Donors by virtue of their giving to the Loyalty Fund or the 1963 Lenoir Rhyne Fund for Progress Campaign during the past year.

The figure set a new high in Lenoir Rhyne alumni activities. It represented an increase of 651 contributors or 60.9 percent over the high of 1,069 donors established last year. The year before, only 443 names were listed on the honor roll.

Although working with a larger number of alumni, the alumni leadership also succeeded in raising the percentage of participation index. The percent of total alumni contributing to the college jumped to 22.9 as compared with 16.5 percent last year and 10.8 percent the year before. A total of 7,500 alumni were solicited during the past year.

Almost all of the honor roll names are donors to the Funds for Progress. Of the total, 456 contributed a total of $43,000 through the alumni phase of the campaign, headed by William V. Lysterly of Winston-Salem. The others contributed to the same fund either through the church phase conducted among the Lutheran congregations in the state, or through the Hickory phase which solicited among businesses and individuals in the Hickory area. The total amount of the campaign contributed by alumni was $377,148.

Although the 1963 Loyalty Fund was cancelled because of the Fund for Progress campaign, 32 alumni contributed to the Loyalty Fund. Their gifts, totaling $876.80, were applied to the current operating budget of the college and are not included in the capital funds campaign figures. Most of the Loyalty Fund donors contributed also to the Fund for Progress campaign.

NOTICE

Printed on the opposite page is the revised schedule of class reunions adopted by the Alumni Association Board of Directors on June 1.

Beginning in 1965, alumni classes will hold reunions on a modified Dix Reunion Plan instead of the schedule of quinquennial reunions which has been in operation.

The new plan enables classes to hold reunions when contemporary classes are meeting. It also schedules anniversary reunions in the first, twenty-fifth, and fiftieth years following graduation.

Next year, 1964, will be a transitional year and will see classes reunite under both the old and new plans. All classes scheduled to reunite under the old plan in 1964 will hold reunions at that time, with the exception of the Class of 1949, whose reunion will be delayed one year.

Six classes ('26, '27, '45, '46, '47, and '63) will also meet in 1964 to begin the cycle under the new plan.

Eight additional classes will meet in 1964 to avoid missing a reunion during the transition period. They are '20, '21, '25, '35, '55, '60, '61, and '62.

Classes graduating prior to 1917 are not affected by the new schedule. They will continue to meet on five-year anniversaries, as will all other classes when they reach the 50th anniversary of graduation.

The table illustrates how reunions were scheduled under the old plan from 1960 to 1963, which reunions are planned for 1964, and how the new plan will operate from 1965 to 1975.

Loyalty Fund Planned

Plans for the 1963-64 Loyalty Fund were formulated this month at a meeting of the new Loyalty Fund committee held in Salisbury July 23.

The project, seeking $35,000 to supplement faculty salaries at Lenior Rhyne, will open with a solicitation among classes in October and November. Gifts from at least 1,600 alumni will be sought by agents and workers in each class appointed by the Loyalty Fund committee.

Heading the Loyalty Fund committee this year is J. W. McGee, Jr., '41, a Concord banker. His appointment was announced this month by Klynt Ripple of Lexington, president of the Alumni Association.

Other members of the committee are James C. Barker '42 of Hickory, Lewis Carpenter '23 of Charlotte, Charles D. Hemphill '34 of Concord, William V. Lyerly '50 of Winston-Salem, Tom Reese '48 of Hickory, and Ed Schenk of Greensboro.
